

Discrimination is against the law.

Children's Community Health Plan (CCHP) complies with all applicable civil rights laws and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, age, disability, or other legally protected status, in its administration of the plan, including enrollment and benefit determinations.

Children's Community Health Plan provides appropriate auxiliary aids and services, including qualified interpreters for individuals with disabilities and who have language services needs and information in alternate formats, free of charge and in a timely manner, when such aids and services are necessary to ensure an equal opportunity to participate to individuals with disabilities.

Any person who believes someone has been subjected to discrimination on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, age or disability may file a grievance in person, by mail, fax or email. The grievance must be filed with 60 days of the person filing the grievance becomes aware of the alleged discriminatory action. It is against the law for Children's Community Health Plan to retaliate against anyone who files a grievance, or who participates in the investigation of a grievance. Members can request Children's Community Health Plan's grievance procedure by contacting the Section 1557 Coordinator:
